Q1 Why You Care:
Why do you think the problem of abandoned pets is worth raising awareness for?

Because animals are funny and they love you, no animal should be abandoned or left on the street. They have hearts and personalities just like us.

Q2 Your Story:
Write about yourself and your own personal connection to this cause.

My cats are really funny, they play all day long, and I love them very much. I would never want to see them suffer like animals that are abandoned on the street.
